

Boris Karafelov (Israel) "Tu Bi Shvat" (planting new trees) oil on canvas, 27" x31", 1997.

FROM RUSSIA WITH ART

gallery

www.fromrussiawithart.org, 857 253 8421

The Jewish educational and cultural Center Makor & From Russia With Art invite you to celebrate Israel with an exhibition of original oil paintings and etchings by three of the leading artists featured by the Gallery.

Boris Karafelov, an internationally acclaimed artist from Israel was academically trained in Russia. He masterfully utilizes an impressionistic brush stroke and is an intensely bright colorist.

An outstanding oil painter Anatoly Dverin, who immigrated from Ukraine in 1980's, became a Signature Member of Oil Painters of America and Master of Pastel Society of the USA.

The show will also feature rare to be seen in the United States, etchings by Stanislav Nikireyev, a well known in Russia and the international art world. People's Artist of Russia, Stanislav Nikireev (1932-2007,) a Member of Russian Academy of Art, was one of the most remarkable Masters of modern Russian Fine Arts. Beautiful autumn and winter scenes of villages and monastery towns will bring your imagination into Russian winter. His masterpieces, incredibly detailed ‘Jerusalem’ and ‘The Wailing Wall’ are on display.

384 Harvard St, Brookline, MA, 617 771 4870

“Triumph of Life “exhibition & celebration at the Center Makor Campus on June 2nd

The exhibition is curated by Jerry and Olesya Koenig of Cambridge, Russian art experts, collectors and owners of From Russia With Art gallery.

CELEBRATE ISRAEL HERE
As a part of Boston Celebrates Israel
The Campus. 384 Harvard St. Brookline
Admission: $15 Free for Seniors

Meet our Guest of Honor and Keynote Speaker

Famous Refusnik Iosif Begun

In the program:
Concert, Art Exhibition, Dancing, Singing, and Buffet

Sunday, June 2 at 3:00 PM

