43"X48" OIL ON CANVAS
COLLECTION OF MR. AND MRS. DARRELL CRATE

From Russia With Art Gallery is proud to present Sergei Danilin, a renowned artist in Russia, Europe, and the USA. Sergei is an accomplished landscape & portrait artist working in the classical tradition of Romantic Realism. His paintings combine a masterful technique, the strength of classical form and balance, a rich use of color, and a driving quest to reveal what he calls "the essence of the human soul."

Sergei Danilin lives with his wife and family in St. Petersburg, Russia, which for three centuries was the epicenter for Russian art, literature and religion.

At age eight, Sergei began his classical painting training, and at the age of seventeen, he studied further at the Russian Academy of Art in Saint Petersburg. Later, at age twenty-three, he was appointed to the faculty and taught there until 1985. In the past twelve years, Mr. Danilin has traveled numerous times to Europe and America to paint. In Europe, Sergei is mostly known for his historical paintings and portraits. In America, he is lauded as an individual and family portrait artist. Many of his clients have invited him to paint in their homes, in order to fully understand and capture the essence of their family and its surroundings. In these works the viewer can observe the masterfully captured beauty and complexity of human relationships.

In the United States, Danilin is well known by people who cherish and appreciate exceptional
